THE JEFFERSON COUNTY COMMISSION WILL HOLD ADDITIONAL PUBLIC FORUM THIS FRIDAY, AUGUST 8th AT 6PM

Birmingham, AL – Commissioner Sheila Smoot has announced plans to hold a second forum for the purpose of informing the public of the problems facing the County sewer system and the current proposals to address the problem.

The second forum will be held at the Jefferson County Courthouse, Room # 370, on Friday, August 8th from 6:00-8:00pm. The first forum will take place at Samford University's Wright Auditorium on Friday, August 8th at 10am.

The additional forum will be moderated by hosts of WBHK 98.7 KissFM's Talk Back, Hollis Wormsley and James Williams. Following presentations on the current proposed plan and on issues related to bankruptcy, the public is invited to participate in a live question and answer session. Participants are limited to Jefferson County residents only.

All attendees asking questions will be required to provide name, address and city of occupancy as is customary for public hearings. A follow-up interview with Commissioner Smoot will air on Talk Back on Sunday, August 10th at 10pm.
